

RAW: RAISING AWARENESS ON EFFECTIVE WASTE MANAGEMENT

N° 2021-1-PL01-KA220-VET-000025342.

start date: 01/01/2022

end date: 31/12/2023

FINAL COUNTDOWN

We are entering the last month of RAW project implementation. Finalizing the project results, we are completing the last activities related the mobile app and the guide.

Have you already done your investigation on the project results?

Here is your hint where to go to:

With this stated we bring up the topic of the digital crash course, which cannot be undervalued. First of all, the digital crash course is built on the Guide on circular economy strategies in business environment (result 1). Second of all, it is available without registration, and through the link <https://raw.erasmus.site/project-results/course/>.

USE WASTE AS A RESOURCE

While accompanied by worksheets (that you can use as handouts) it can be a resourceful solution without Internet access – adding to it the Guide you keep on your desktop.

This chapter focuses on the reusing and redistribution of goods and materials in business and manufacturing. The topic of waste management does not just focus on throwing out less, but also on producing less and using the things we own to their full potential.

MULTIPLIER EVENTS

In the final months of the project, the RAW Consortium is organizing national events targeted at employees of chambers of commerce, regional development agencies, local authorities and centres for entrepreneurship development, VET teachers, trainers and mentors, but also SMEs, entrepreneurs and start uppers. Invited will also be stakeholders participating in RAW workshops. The event will be an opportunity to raise awareness on effective waste management and how digitalization is affecting the circular economy sector. Event participants will also exchange their experience and good practices in waste management at institutional level. During the full scope of both results will be presented and discussed.
